

SUMMARY

Co-founder of SiteSpot, a Prague digital agency, where I lead development, AI, automation and business logic. Co-founder and CEO of Leadora, a Czech AI SaaS built on a RAG knowledge base for technical teams. I build conversion websites on a modern stack (React/Vite, Vercel), design and deploy AI agents, chatbots and back-office automation (Make, LLM pipelines), and deliver client work across chemistry, hospitality, healthcare and tech.
